DESCRIPTION

The Nebraska One Box Pheasant Hunt Scholarships provide financial aid and incentive to area high school seniors seeking a post secondary degree. The scholarships are awarded annually based on criteria determined by One Box officials.

ELIGIBILITY

Area high school seniors with a minimum GPA of 2.0 are eligible to apply.

BASIS OF AWARD

The applicant must complete and submit the following:

- Completed “Nebraska One Box Pheasant Hunt Scholarship”

Important: Only submissions on the official One Box application will be considered and one application applies to all One Box scholarships available.

- Official transcript of grades
- 200-word essay describing applicant’s desire for a higher education, and evidence of school, community, and extracurricular involvement.
- Two (2) letters of recommendation from non-family members are required.
- Completed application, transcript, and letters of recommendation are requested to be bound in a transparent-front report cover with a senior photograph of the applicant attached to the cover page.

DATE OF AWARD

Scholarship awards will be presented at the recipient’s commencement exercises or the Honors Banquet for Broken Bow recipients. Each scholarship valued at $500-$2500 will be awarded and paid directly to the recipient’s selected college upon verification of attendance. This sum will be paid in two (2) installments. Verified second semester registration must be submitted by April 15, 2013 or second half will be considered null and void, unless other arrangements have been made.

APPLICATION

Official applications will be mailed by the One Box Scholarship Committee to area high school guidance counselors. Applications are due to the One Box Committee no later than MARCH 5, 2012.

By submitting this application, the applicant consents to the use of his or her name and likeness for promotional purposes and dissemination of news information and press releases for the use and benefit of the Nebraska One Box Pheasant Hunt, Inc. and its related organizations.
